SKILLS AND VOLUNTEERING ASPIRATIONS

The Yarra Valley Railway requires volunteers to run the heritage railway and achieve our goal of rebuilding the railway between Healesville and Yarra Glen, currently the largest funded community project in Australia. Volunteering can be a very rewarding experience, working with other volunteers towards a common purpose, "the success of the Railway" skills and knowledge can be gained, and friendships made, at the same time you are helping to keep our railway heritage alive.

Volunteer activities are many and varied, here are some examples that these activities include:

- Ways and Works Branch: Track and bridge restoration and maintenance; track machine and plant operators and building restoration.
- Operations Branch: Guards, Train Drivers, Signallers and Track Patrollers.
- Mechanical Branch: restoration and maintenance of rolling stock and machinery.
- Station Staff: Station Master; Officer-in-Charge; Booking Clerks (Ticket sellers).
- Administration roles: assisting in special events; publicity and marketing; website development; social media management.
